We will be producing an original play written by our own Scott Mitchell with a multi-generational cast.

Suppose the story of Hamlet unfolded in real time on American television (Hamlet interviewed on 'The Today Show'; Ophelia guesting on 'The View', Laertes competing with Hamlet on 'Fencing with the Stars'). Suppose further that every plot development is spun by partisan political factions (Royalist vs. Rebels) seeking to advance their views. You have just imagined the world of 'Hamlet: A Televised Tragedy'. We are planning a spring production for this original work and have 37 parts to cast (all the ones you'd expect: Hamlet, Horatio, Claudius, Gertrude, etc., plus a few you that are new to the canon: Oprah, Larry King, Wolf Blitzer, Barbara Walters, Rachel Madow, Joe Garigola). Want to play?
